Equality, diversity and inclusion

LAHP is committed to becoming more equal, diverse and inclusive in our recruitment and working practices and to promoting positive change for our students and staff, across our HEI and non-HEI partners, and in the arts, cultural and heritage sectors in London and beyond.

- We are committed to the provision of equality of opportunity for all of our applicants, students and staff.
- We are committed to a community in which all people can learn, work and interact freely without fear of discrimination, prejudice or harassment.
- All applicants, students, staff, supervisors and stakeholders will be treated equitably and will not be accorded less favourable treatment on the grounds of: gender, marital / civil partnership status, sexual orientation, gender re-assignment, race, colour, nationality, ethnicity or national origins, religion or similar philosophical belief, spent criminal conviction, age or disability.

LAHP Black and Global Majority Network

Student-led network to bring students from marginalised ethnic and racial backgrounds together. The network is for students who identify as People of Colour, BAME, and/or part of Black and Global Majority racial and ethnic groups.

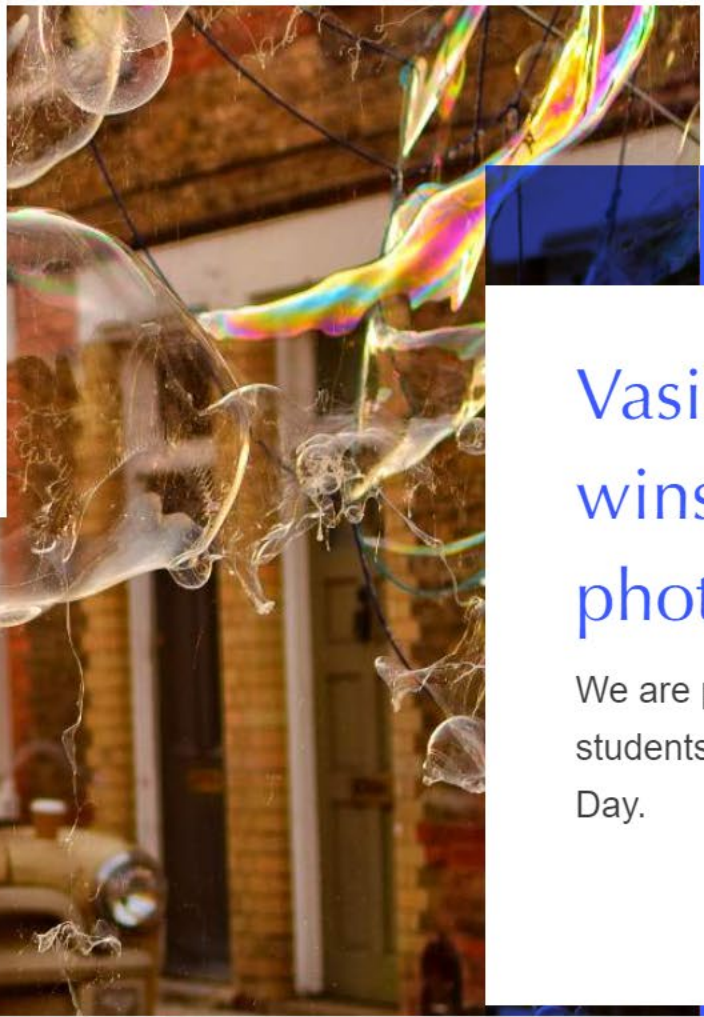

The network hopes to promote a sense of community within the wider LAHP cohort for Black and Global Majority students, with longer-term ambitions of organising social events and collaborative seminars which will represent and platform a plurality of voices.
