If this is a new collaboration, please explain how it relates to the research priorities of the supervisor and department (maximum of 400 words)

Annual anticipated financial contribution from the non-academic partner Please note that there is no requirement for non-HEI partners to commit to making a financial contribution to the cost of the studentship: LAHP will meet the basic cost, which cover the normal London stipend (£18,062 for 2022/23), plus tuition fee and some training costs. However, LAHP strongly encourages recognition of the extra responsibilities students assume when accepting this kind of studentship, and the importance of the role they play in the non-academic partner organisation. We welcome any contribution towards the costs which may be incurred by the student or supervisors in working across two organisations. The following sets out the ways in which financial contributions can be made to the cost of the studentship. Non-academic partners are asked to confirm any financial commitment at this stage in the letter of support.
Funding and/or in-kind to the student  This contribution, which is strongly encouraged, is in recognition of the extra responsibilities associated with collaborative studentships will directly augment the student's stipend. Basic London studentship stipends are now set at £18,062 p/a for 2022/23.	£
Any additional contributions: e.g. travel and subsistence expenses anticipated to support the student/supervisors travelling between their institution and the partner organisation(s); or other materials and facilities to be made available to the student.	£
PLEASE ATTACH A SIGNED LETTER OF SUPPORT FROM THE PARTNER ORGANISATION(S), including appropriate details of the ways in which they anticipate realising mutual benefit as partners in this collaboration as CONFIRMATION OF COMMITMENT TO THIS PROJECT.
