

LAHP Student-, Staff- and Alumni-led Activities Fund: Guidance

Aim

This fund is designed to support LAHP students, staff and alumni to organise training, events and activities that complement the training and cohort development programme offered by LAHP. The scheme aims to enhance the research culture across the consortium by:

- Funding activities to enhance, and make the most of, the research environment in London;
- Funding activities that benefit LAHP students but are open to all students in partner HEIs;
- Enhancing existing provision or developing new activities to benefit students across the consortium.

You can apply for up to £3,000 from this fund to support your activity.

Eligibility criteria

- All applications must involve current LAHP students as co-organisers of the activity. For student-led events, at least two current LAHP students should be involved. Staff- and alumni-led activities should include at least one current student as co-organiser.
- Activities are funded by the LAHP Cohort Development Fund (CDF) and therefore must meet the terms and conditions for this fund heading as detailed in the AHRC Training Grant Funding Guide (section 2.3).
- This fund will only support activities that are organised to address identified training needs of the wider LAHP cohort and applicants must evidence on the application form that this criterion is met.
- Activities must be organised for the number of expected LAHP-funded students but following sufficient registration period for LAHP students, may be opened for other students within the consortium or the wider research community.
- Benefits to the LAHP community should be clearly outlined in the application, including the expected number of LAHP student attendees and suggested subject areas or disciplines the activity would appeal to. Consideration should also be given to how the activity will be well promoted amongst the LAHP consortium. We recommend that applicants gauge interest in the activity amongst fellow LAHP students before submitting an application.

- Activities must complement the Training and Cohort Development Programme offered by LAHP.
- All events must be free to attend.
- The activity must normally take place within 6 months of approval of fund request, except in case of exceptional circumstances, and the LAHP team must be informed of this no later than 1 month before the activity's original start date.
- Activities could include, but are not limited to:
  - Specialist training that is not available in the core LAHP training programme
  - Events that facilitate student networks or reading groups
  - Student-Led conferences

Application process

Applications must be submitted via Flexigrant and by the deadline indicated on the LAHP website. Applications will then be considered by the LAHP team, within one month of the deadline.

EDI considerations and environmental impact

Applicants should incorporate EDI considerations in their event planning and ensure the proposed activity is inclusive and accessible for the wider LAHP community. Details of these must be provided on the application form.

All applicants must provide a brief statement demonstrating how they have considered the environmental impact of the proposed activity in line with their university's sustainability policy

Responsibilities of the organiser

As these activities are considered part of the LAHP training provision, they must be registered on the platform that LAHP uses for training provision registration (Eventbrite). Details of the event must be sent to the LAHP team (lahp@ucl.ac.uk) at least 4 weeks before the event date. Current LAHP students must be given priority registration. Remaining places may be filled with other PGR students of the consortium.

Attendance lists must be provided to LAHP within one week of the event having taken place, with clear indication of the attending current LAHP-funded students.

The organiser(s) is expected to coordinate all arrangements for the event, including liaison with external stakeholders and their university teams, as well as the LAHP team.

Payments

We expect all payments to be managed by the lead student's HEI or LAHP. Students must not pay for any expenditure under this scheme and LAHP will not reimburse any costs via expense claims.

The organiser's home institution (or the central LAHP team, if organised via us) are legally obliged to check the right to work documentation of all speakers or any other contributors who are paid an honorarium or salary for the activity. No monies will be paid or reimbursed to universities until a detailed invoice and confirmation of right to work checks having been completed has been provided.

See the LAHP Student-, Staff- and Alumni-led Activities Fund: Terms and Conditions for full details on payments and responsibilities of the organiser.
